

ALLISON WINGATE / the Review Times

Habitat makes a home

Jason and Jessica Minard (at left) had an emotional afternoon as they were turned over the keys to their new home Friday, a rehabilitated project at 301 E. Center St., by the Fostoria Area Habitat for Humanity organization. Volunteers and Habitat committee members gathered with the family at the Center Street home for a ribbon-cutting ceremony and a prayer blessing led by Pastor Bernie Dickson.